| School performance meets/exceed the 2010 state average |
| School performance meets/exceed the 2010 bottom 25% of schools |
| School performance meets/exceed the 2010 bottom 10% of schools |
| School performance is less than the 2010 similar schools performance |

Whichever of the similar schools or bottom 10% is higher will be used as the measure to determine the orange or red categorization

In the instances where the similar schools percentage is higher than the bottom 25%, the categories go: state avg, similar schools, then bottom 25%

¹ Instead of Advanced Placement or International Baccalaureate courses, all juniors and seniors take dual-credit courses taught by Anderson University adjunct faculty each semester. By graduation, they can earn up to 36 college credits for free by earning a B or higher in these dual-credit courses.
